

F. Superior responsibility and contribution to the industry

This competence is about ensuring that you are actively contributing to the industry and to CIBSE and will continue to do so throughout your career.

A Fellow will have reached a position of superior responsibility and accountability. You are not expected to provide evidence for all the examples below, they are for guidance and not an exhaustive list.

| OBJECTIVE | EVIDENCE EXAMPLES |
|---|---|
| F1. Carry out an active role in contribution to the industry or demonstrating support for CIBSE, in the past and in the future. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Publishing professional papers. > Speaking at national / international conferences. > General promotion of the Industry. > Serving on CIBSE Committees or Panels. > Involvement and contribution to CIBSE's Societies. > Involvement and contribution to CIBSE's Regions. > Contribution to a CIBSE Event/Awards. > Achieved recognition as an industry expert / specialist. > Support young entrants to building services engineering. > Mentoring. |
| F2. Reached a position of superior responsibility and accountability. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Have expertise in one or more specialist sector. > Have accountability for decisions on the design, management and financial implications of engineering projects. > Be engaged in an operations or maintenance role. > Be a leader of a research or development team. > Be a practicing academic teaching to degree level. > Develop and apply new technologies. > Promote advanced designs and design methods. > Introduce new and more efficient production techniques, marketing and construction concepts. > Pioneer new engineering services and management methods. > Be a leader in environmental and sustainability aspects of engineering. |